

Rainforest Singing

Joyful communal singing from the rich
musical tradition
of the Baka Pygmies

Workshop
with Su Hart

April 18th to 19th 2020, in Bienne/Biel

Learn the joyful and fascinating singing of the African rainforest people.

This multilayered polyphony has accompanied daily tasks and ritual for millennia.

In this workshop we will learn chants, songs and rhythms from the Baka tradition.

This will help us improve our cooperative listening and interlocking and building vocal confidence and collaboration.

When: April 18th–19th 2020

Saturday & Sunday 10.00-16.00 (with lunch break)

Where: Rudolf Steiner Schule, Schützengasse 54, 2502 Bienne/Biel

Costs: 230Fr regular fee; 200Fr early fee till March 2nd;
Reduction possible

Info & registration: Claudia Bergomi, 079 523 04 06, suono@claudiabergomi.net

Su Hart is an experienced and engaging teacher with a joyful and supportive style.

Inspired by 25 years of visiting Baka Rainforest People in Central Africa and learning from their unbroken musical culture has inspired this joyful singing workshop.

Song builds community, heal illness and argument, soothes babies and the 'Yelli' yodel enchants the animals ensuring luck in the hunt.

For more information

suhart.com

globalmusicexchange.org

claudiabergomi.net